DETAILED ACTION

1. The amendment filed 7/28/05 has been received and considered. Claims 1, 2, 4, 6, 7, 9-11, 13, 14, 16-18 and 20-27 are presented for examination.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Pamela Riley on 8/5/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 13 line 6, the phrase "a substitute" was changed to --substitute--.

Claim 26 line 1, the phrase "of claim 21" was changed to --of claim 22--

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

While Hegde et al (U.S. Pub 2003/0065415), Varga et al (U.S. Pub 2002/0165805), Denton et al (U.S. Pat 6,584,370), Dangat et al (U.S. Pat 5,971,585) and Milne et al (U.S. Pat 5,943,484), each assigned to the assignee of the instant application, all teach planning systems that identify permissible part substitutions and Lichtenberg et al (U.S. Pub 2002/0165701) provides a product configuration method, where alternate parts are evaluated for use in a complex product, where product models use rules that utilize restricted subsets of parts, placing restrictions on product configurations. None of these references taken either alone or in combination with the prior art of record disclose a production planning method specifically including:

“computing an optimal production plan in which said first assembly is produced with said multiple substitutions, wherein said plan is optimized for manufacturing efficiency”, and

“formulating said restrictions as mathematical expressions for each substitute part number and solving for optimum material substitutions using said mathematical expressions”, in combination with the remaining elements and features of the claimed invention. It is for these reasons that the applicant’s invention defines over the prior art of record.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
